Saturday, January 25, (8:00pm) $22/$19 Matilda: The Musical

Matilda is a little girl with astonishing wit, intelligence, and psychokinetic powers. She's unloved by her cruel parents but impresses her schoolteacher, the highly loveable Miss Honey. Over the course of her first term at school, Matilda and Miss Honey have a profound effect on each other's lives, as Miss Honey begins not only to recognize but also appreciate Matilda's extraordinary personality. Matilda's school life isn't completely smooth sailing, however – the school's mean headmistress, Miss Trunchbull, hates children and just loves thinking up new punishments for those who don't abide by her rules. But Matilda has courage and cleverness in equal amounts, and could be the school pupils' saving grace!

Inspired by the twisted genius of Roald Dahl, the Tony Award-winning Roald Dahl's Matilda: The Musical is a captivating masterpiece that revels in the anarchy of childhood, the power of imagination, and the inspiring story of a girl who dreams of a better life.

NBC's Late Friday just to name a few. He was an award-winning writer for Thugs on Film on BBC America and the Winner of the L.A. Take Out Comedy Competition. Take Out opened the doors for Dan to co-develop and host the hit first season of Asia Street Comedy, on AZN TV. Today you can hear his podcast, "The Best Medicine" on iTunes as well as his two critically acclaimed comedy albums, "Giant Robot" and "Baby For Sale."

Dan's comedy is PG-13. Without graphic violence or nudity, Dan casually delivers what his friends refer to as "Smart Stupid Comedy." He is a soft sell who doesn't beat you over the head with his material. If you like a joke, cool. If not, there's another one coming in about 10 seconds. Dan has appeared on Comedy Central's Premium Blend, the Late Late Show and Showtime just to name a few.

“The Tree’s Dream,” is a journey into the subconscious mind of a single tree, alone in a deserted wasteland. The Tree’s life is fading after so many years of loss and loneliness. She refuses to bloom, even when a gentle young Forest Sprite tries to help her. But when a majestic Turkey Vulture uses his magical powers to guide the little Forest Sprite through the many layers of the Tree’s dreaming mind, hope is rekindled. There, in the midst of the Tree’s dream the Vulture believes that little Sprite may better empathize with the Tree and bring her the hope and strength to bloom again.

A colorful combination of puppets, (marionettes and bunraku) and masked performers express the Tree’s hidden emotional memories gathered, stored and even lost to abstraction throughout its long life.

Created and performed by The Elephantoms Puppet Theater, “The Tree’s Dream,” asks if we can heal the loneliness, the sadness of other living creatures by using our magical ability to empathize, no matter how different we are from one another.

"...a ride through a wide range of Americana meadows and valleys... from skilled instrumentation bluegrass jams, Appalachian vocals, sweet high lonesome harmonies and old-time folk influences, the richness of a tapestry of American music that weaves together each genre through... song-craft, clear production and authentic performance... it feels like we're hearing just one genre ~ great American music... one of the finest and most original Americana groups in California (or in the country for that matter)." ~ No Depression. Film's 'Silent Era' lasted roughly from 1895 to 1930. During this time thousands of dialogue-free films were shot in Southern California, many in the area around Newhall in the Santa Clarita Valley. In fact, Newhall became so popular for filmmaking that it took on the nickname - "Newhallywood."

Enjoy a pop-up exhibit and explore rarely-seen props, costumes, and other memorabilia donated by the superstar couple to the Natural History Museum. Visit family-friendly activities in William S. Hart Park and Museum throughout the festival weekend, and enter the Santa Clarita Valley Historical Society's train station which will be converted into "Slapstick Junction," for screening short silent film comic gems for audiences of all ages.

Attend film screenings at nearby Newhall locations, along with a special sing-a-long version of Singin' in the Rain, and so much more!

1927 Hollywood. Monumental Pictures' biggest stars, glamorous on-screen couple Lina Lamont and Don Lockwood, are also an off-screen couple if the trade papers and gossip columns are to be believed. Both perpetuate the public perception if only to please their adoring fans and bring people into the movie theaters. In reality, Don barely tolerates her, while Lina, despite thinking Don beneath her, simply-mindedly believes what she sees on screen in order to bolster her own stardom and sense of self-importance. R.F. Simpson, Monumental's head, dismisses what he thinks is a flash in the pan: talking pictures.

Watercolor demonstration by Fatemeh Kian

Fatemeh Kian will demonstrate watercolor at meeting of the Santa Clarita Artists Association (SCAA). This event is free, open to the public and meets at 6:30 pm at

"I love all sorts of art, from calligraphy to acrylic, but my true passion is watercolor.

When I mix color with water and put my brush on the paper, I find ultimate peace and comfort," said Kian. When she realized her passion, Kian started learning from the best Iranian watercolor painters at the time, such as Naser Nourmohammad Zadeh, Mohammad Ali Yazdchi, and Homa Ghaffar Zadeh. At 30, she started teaching her own students and since then taught hundreds of students in all ranges, from three-year-olds to 85-years-young. See: <http://fatemehyaskian.com/>

Kian moved to Oklahoma in 2015 where she taught watercolor at the only art center. Soon she was invited to teach watercolor at Family Resource Center of the Oklahoma State University, Oshe Lifelong Learning Institute, and the city's only mosque. After moving to Los Angeles in 2017, she became an active member of Valley Watercolor Society; and has had a number of exhibitions and live teaching demonstrations.

Come early, standing room only expected by 6:30pm. See www.SantaClaritaArtists.org.

Santa Clarita Cowboy Festival

Santa Clarita's rich Western heritage takes center stage each year at the Cowboy Festival. This year marks the 26th annual event and looking back, some residents may wonder why the City hosts this Festival, which attracts more than 10,000 visitors each year. More than two decades ago, City leaders were inspired by the National Cowboy Poetry Gathering in Elko, Nevada, and decided to create a unique celebration of Santa Clarita's Western history – from art and music to film and television. In 1994, the Santa Clarita Cowboy Festival made its debut, honoring the authentic Old West through music, poetry, cowboy gear, food and storytelling in a setting that was unique to the area...and the rest is history! Although elements of the event have changed over the years, Santa Clarita's Cowboy Festival has always delivered a one-of-a-kind, multi-day lineup of music, food, entertainment and activities for Western enthusiasts of all ages.

This year, the City of Santa Clarita has planned an event that has guaranteed to delight attendees of all ages.
