War – Band

The evolution of WAR began in 1969...and WAR has been evolving ever since. The band's global popularity is a tribute to the timelessness of its music and message. Perhaps nothing epitomizes this truth greater than the fact that WAR has twice been honored by its hometown of Los Angeles, over 20 years apart, for its music making positive contributions to the betterment of the community. To date, WAR has yielded a motherload of chart gold and platinum, with a whopping 17 Gold, Platinum or Multi-Platinum awards.

Monster hit songs include "Why Can't We Be Friends," "Slippin' Into Darkness," "The World Is A Ghetto," "The Cisco Kid," "Spill the Wine," and more!

Pride & Prejudice - $20/17

Finding a husband is hardly Elizabeth Bennet's most urgent priority. But with four sisters, an overzealous match-making mother, and a string of unsuitable suitors, it's difficult to escape the subject. When the independent-minded Elizabeth meets the handsome but enigmatic Mr. Darcy, she is determined not to let her feelings triumph over her own good sense—but the truth turns out to be slipperier than it seems. In a society where subtle snubs and deceit proliferate, is it possible for Elizabeth and Darcy to look beyond his pride and her prejudice, and to make the best match of all?

Suite Surrender

It's 1942, and two of Hollywood's biggest divas have descended upon the luxurious Palm Beach Royale Hotel—assistants, luggage, and legendary feud with one another in tow.

Everything seems to be in order for their wartime performance...that is, until they are somehow assigned to the same suite. Mistaken identities, overblown egos, double entendres, and a lap dog named Mr. Boodles round out this hilarious riot of a love note to the classic farces of the 1930s and 40s.

Mick Adams and the Stones: A Tribute to The Rolling Stones

Mick Adams as Mick Jagger

Mick Adams' incredible voice, range, and power speak for themselves. Born in Columbus, Ohio, Mick began singing at three years old. By the age of eight, he was the only child singing with the local adult church choir. While in high school, he studied voice under Elizabeth Graham and was a featured soloist in the high school choir. Mick continued his vocal education studying voice under Ben Bollinger whose other notable students included Karen and Richard Carpenter.

Not only is Mick Adams a ringer for Mick Jagger, but he also brings Mick Jagger's intense energy to each performance.
