"The Old Maid & The Thief" and "The Telephone"

"The Old Maid & The Thief" and "The Telephone"

Presented by Mission Opera
Mission Opera will present two short made-for-TV operas by Gian Carlo Menotti as their season opener on Friday, September 10 through Sunday, September 12 at The MAIN in Newhall. The Old Maid & The Thief will be sung in English with Spanish subtitles and will feature a special guest, Rich Capparella, while El Teléfono (known as "The Telephone") will be sung as a World Premiere in Spanish with English subtitles.

"The Telephone" premiered 74 years ago in New York City. It was originally a short opener for "The Medium" and both ran on Broadway for a short period in 1947. It revolves around a young GI who has been drafted but wants to propose to his girlfriend before going to service. He is nervous but quickly gets upset when he cannot seem to get her off the phone long enough to pop the question.

"The Old Maid and the Thief" was originally created as a radio opera. It will be staged in chapters of small scenes with narration between as was presented at its premiere in 1939 on NBC Radio with the NBC Symphony Orchestra playing. In this show, we find two women living together, vying for the attention of a man suspected of being an escaped convict. Both women go to absurd lengths to win his heart while keeping gossiping neighbors at bay.

SING FOR THE LOVE OF IT

Santa Clarita Encore Chorale, a nonprofit musical arts program for seniors, invites adults 55 and older to join our Fall 2021 semester.

If you are looking for an opportunity to make music, have fun, and exercise some mental and physical muscles, there's nothing better than a choir. PLEASE NOTE that singers must show that they are fully vaccinated and sing with masks (such as the Broadway Singers or KN95 masks), until such time as the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) say otherwise. Your safety is our major priority.

This season's repertoire is a mix of fun and traditional Christmas and Hanukkah songs. The first rehearsal is Friday, August 27th from 4:00-6:00 P.M., continuing Fridays from September to the Concert on December 3rd.

Rehearsals and the Concert are at the Newhall Church of the Nazarene, 23857 The Old Road (near Calgrove and the I-5), Newhall, CA. A modest semester "tuition" of $150 helps cover costs. The introductory rehearsals on August 27th or September 10th are free, with no obligation to join. So, come check it out!

For more details, contact Cheri Walters at 661/313-6526 or cheri.walters@gmail.com, or Roberta Kessler at 661/296-5085 or rkessler1367@gamil.com

Precious Art Reception

On exhibit from Sept. 1 to Sept. 26, 2021.

A universal part of being human is awe and wonder at the miracle of birth, and delight in babies and small children at the beginning of their journeys. Pure, uncorrupted, and full of hope and potential, the value placed on them is one of the highest in our culture.

What if that value was replaced by avarice and self-absorption? This series of paintings imagines a world in which the Precious are seen alone in circumstances that may have elements of danger, neglect, or disconnection. It explores ideas around value – what was once Precious can easily lose that status as we become more and more disconnected and self-serving.

Welcome to Plein Air Painting! We had so much fun in August at Harbor Cove let's try another water with boats venue. The address is 1198 Navigator Drive, Ventura, CA, 93001. Ventura West Marina is not far from Harbor Cove.

There is a boat launching facility and a restaurant nearby. From this site, you'll see boats, some close together and some by themselves. Looking across the water we will see Harbor Cove and the Museum by where we have painted before. Public restrooms are available

These are the directions I got from Google Maps:

- Take 126 to 101 N to Seaward
- Turn left onto Seaward Ave toward beaches and piers
- Go 500 feet then turn left on to East Harbor Blvd
- Continue for 1.4 miles, then turn right onto Schooner Drive
- Turn left on Anchor Way Drive
- Continue for 450 feet

From the News: Bright Idea

Rama Mahto, 65, was reportedly drunk inside his home in the village of Madhodeh, India, on Aug. 8, when a baby snake bit him on the leg, Newsweek reported.

Contrary to common advice in the wake of a snake bite. Mahto captured the little snake and began chewing on it in revenge, during which his family said he was “bitten more than 10 times” on the face. His family urged him to seek medical help at the hospital, but he went to bed – and never woke up.

Hahto had told his family he didn’t think the snake was venomous due to its age.

It occurred to me that we have been in self-isolation for about 18 months and we have not observed some important events in our lives. Here are my personal wishes to you.
