La Galeria Gitana Presents:

Celebration of La Femme Art in San Fernando

Four Santa Clarita Artists Association (SCAA) members have been accepted to the "Women: A Celebration of La Femme" exhibition at in San Fernando.

• Jerry Cowart, award-winning fine art photographer said, "I am a story teller and through my photography, I tell many stories and I hope that each person who sees my work enjoys the stories I am telling. The eight photos I have in the show are about four amazing women, their love, courage, talent and artistry of them and the horses they ride. I hope you enjoy the ride--I mean the read!"

www.etsy.com/shop/PhotosbyJerryCowart

• Olga Kaczmar - "I have three entries in this show: two oils and a pastel. The most fun one is 'Bathing Beauties,' referenced from a rare black & photo, which I colorized, added facial expressions and daring bathing suits of the 1920s era. While painting them, I made friends with each gal--I felt them giggle as I brought them to life.

<https://fineartamerica.com/profiles/olga-kaczmar.html>

Mardi Georgio - "I love portraying the beautiful women of the music/ film industries. 'Diana' (a charcoal drawing) was such a talented and magnetic force in such a tiny body. The colors and styles of the 60's and 70's were some of the most vibrant and fun. In my pastel 'Supreme Sensation,' the challenge of portraying three distinct women in a fictional stage scene was enormously enervating.

These talented women inspired with their music and style. www.mardianleegeorgio.com.

Mike Farrell - "The art that I make generally has a narrative to it. In my drawing, "Bed Check," I've tried to depict the security of a nourishing relationship, along with the active effort needed to build that security. While not exclusively feminine, society has traditionally assigned that role to the female half of our world and that is what I'm trying to depict here. See:

What to Expect: At The Society Comedy Troupe, a cast of professional actors and comedians will take you on a comedy adventure that is never the same twice. Most shows begin with a short warm-up from one of our players to explain the show and get the audience ready to enjoy. Then our Players take the stage, and the spontaneity begins. Because we get suggestions for scenes and seek input from the audience, you can, if you choose, directly affect the show. Usually we do shorter improv games or scenes at the beginning of the show, and then start a long-form play or musical for the second half. However, because we're making everything up, that can change too!

At every show, you can expect:

Brought to you by the City of Santa Clarita and Bridge to Home, the primary homeless services provider in the valley, the Chili Cook Off will take place at William S. Hart Park in Newhall, CA.

This event features numerous chili cooks preparing and serving their best chili recipes. Cooks include International Chili Society members, local amateur chefs, and those who simply wish to make chili for a great cause. The proceeds of this event go towards Bridge to Home's mission of providing support services – including an emergency shelter, case management, housing navigation, and referrals for health, mental health, and substance use treatment – to help individuals and families in the Santa Clarita Valley transition out of homelessness.

Californio Fiesta de Rancho Camulos

Former Cowboy Festival Director, Mike Fleming, and his band, New West, will perform followed by a tribute to Don Edwards at Don

Ygnacio del Valle's estancia at Rancho Camulos Museum and National Historic Landmark. Attendees will step back in time in Heritage Valley, where the history, myth, and Romance of old California still linger. All proceeds benefit the non-profit museums historical preservation. Note: this is New West's only performance at this year's festival. *Transportation is NOT provided for this trip, attendees must drive themselves to the location. Attendees will enjoy:

- Tri tip and chicken buffet from Cowboy John's Smokin' Barbecue
- Intimate Cowboy music performance from New West
- Documentary feature highlighting the life of cowboy singer Don Edwards; the western lifestyle; and the battle to continue the legacy of this great American music
- Costumed docent-led tours

Rancho Camulos sits at the gateway to one of the largest urban population centers in the country. One of the best surviving examples of an early Californio Rancho in its original setting, it is the site that inspired the 1884 novel "Ramona" and the filming location for DW Griffith's 1910 Ramona starring Mary Pickford. Nowhere else in California can one experience a rancho of this type in its historic landscape setting. Indeed, the charm of Camulos is in no small part due to its remoteness from the frenetic activity of the city, the drama of the valley and surrounding mountains. Yet the museum's location halfway between Los Angeles and Santa Barbara (the rancho had been a stopping point on the original stage coach route between these two cities) makes it easily accessible to audiences visiting or living in the tri-county area.

Pastel Demonstration by Otto Stürcke

Otto Stürcke will conduct a pastel demonstration at the meeting of the Santa Clarita Artists Association (SCAA). This event is free, open to the public. As a representational artist, Stürcke seeks to find common ground between the contemporary and the classical. "I am greatly influenced by the Dutch Masters and aim to depict the personal, the emotional, and the quiet elegance in my paintings through light, shadow, and texture," said Stürcke.

Primarily self-taught, Stürcke joined the U.S. Marine Corps in hopes of attaining financial aid to attend an art college. His plans were altered in 1991 when he was called to serve in Desert Storm. Soon after his military service, he enrolled in art workshops and courses at several local art associations and colleges while launching his illustration career under the mentorship of Mike Butkus. Working as an illustrator served him for honing many techniques and found pastels to be his principal medium of choice.

In recent years, Stürcke has garnered recognition and awards for his works including the title of Master Pastelist by the Pastel Society of America, 1st Place in Pastel Journal's 19th Annual Pastel 100 Competition Animal/Wildlife Category, 1st Place in the 8th Annual Members Show of the Pastel Society of Southern California, Stabilo Award at the 1st International Pastel Exhibition in Rome, Butler Institute of American Art. Friday Plein Air Painting

An Afternoon At Mentryville

Welcome to Friday Plein Air Painting. Come and join us to meet other artists and paint around Santa Clarita! This month we will be meeting in the afternoon from 2-5 at Mentryville. It's a great opportunity to draw, paint, or simply observe the great outdoors. Mentryville is located west of the 5 Fry. From Lyons Ave and the 5 Fry continue west on Pico Cyn. Rd. until the road ends. Then enter the Park and continue to the parking lot. There is a parking fee.

This is a meet-up group, therefore there is no additional fee. If you are new to Plein Air painting, a view finder is helpful to keep the focus on your subject. We all struggle to find that perfect composition. With practice outdoor painting becomes easier.

Our next location will be on May 31st will be at Judy Reinsma's ranch. This will be our third meeting at this location. It's a beautiful spot and includes horses, a barn and outbuildings. Call or email if you need further information.

Bonnie Butler 'Dreaming In Color' Exhibit

"I always loved creating art but raising a family took me in a different direction," said Butler.

After her family was grown, she returned to art, her first love, first with watercolors and Chinese brush, and currently with alcohol inks and encaustic wax. She explores, creates, and relishes the ever-changing outcomes and spontaneity of her mediums. Her whimsical, loose-style paintings, now exhibited around the world, range from blooms and gardens, to expressive landscapes, to abstracts, and the occasional portrait of people and pets. See: www.bonnybutler.com

Butler currently has her first-place mixed media painting hanging at the Santa Clarita City Hall and has six paintings hanging at the local Hyatt Regency. She is a member of the Santa Clarita Artist Association and has exhibited her art in the Fine Craft Show of Santa Clarita, Artisan Row Home Arts and Crafts Show and the Pasadena Jackalope Indie Artisan Fair.
