Route 66 9/11 Tribute

Route 66 Classic Grill will be hosting a 9/11

Tribute again this year.

September 11th, falls on a Wednesday and we will be hosting our weekly Bike Night (6-9PM). We felt it appropriate to stop the band (Rebel Heart) at 7PM and begin our Tribute. A Bagpiper will begin playing "Amazing Grace" and exit the restaurant via the patio door, marching to our stage. We will have the LA County Fire Department on hand to raise the American flag from the ladder truck, and Millena Hicks will take the stage and sing the "National Anthem." Once she is done, Bob Kellar will take the stage, speak for a few minutes and then introduce Mike Garcia. We felt that Mike would be a great speaker, considering he was one of the first fighter pilots to enter Iran, following the attacks on 9/11. When Mike is done speaking we will have another incredible singer, Tim May sing the Lee Greenwood song "God Bless The USA." After that song, the bagpiper will begin playing, and march back into the restaurant. We will wait 15 minutes and then the Rebel Heart will continue to play. We hope that you will join us on 9/11, to honor those who were lost in the 9/11 attacks. Active Duty Military, Law Enforcement, and Fire Department Personnel will receive a Complementary Dinner during this Tribute...

Lunafest - Women's Film Festival

This fundraising film festival is dedicated to promoting awareness about women's issues, highlighting women filmmakers, and bringing women together in their communities, according to officials.

The event is set to highlight women as leaders in society, illustrated through eight short films by women filmmakers, organizers said.

"It is made for, about and by women," said Beth Heiserman, President-elect, SCV Zonta Club.

Each of the films range from animation to fictional drama, and cover topics such as women's health, body image, relationships, cultural diversity and breaking barriers, officials added.

Among the 8 short films to be shown at the event is "The Final Show," starring Marion Ross of the famous "Happy Days" television series.

All proceeds from Lunafest will benefit SCV Zonta and Chicken & Egg Pictures, a nonprofit organization that supports women nonfiction filmmakers whose artful and innovative storytelling catalyzes social change, according to officials.

So far, Lunafest, which is created and funded by LUNA®, a brand of nutrition bar, has raised more than $4 Million for nonprofit organizations across the US and Canada, officials said.

The evening is scheduled as follows:

5:45 p.m. – VIP ticket holder reception

All Inclusive

All Inclusive is the second production from Wade Bradford and Christopher Flowers featuring The Big Sandwich Theatre Company, Santa Clarita's very own acting troupe dedicated to full length original comedic plays. All Inclusive is a hilariously silly ensemble comedy based on a remote island in the dreary South Atlantic. Incredibly optimistic and eccentric resort owner, Mr. Maca'a, dedicated his life to creating a paradise for lovers after losing his own dearly departed wife eighteen years ago. However, the resort's first guests, Rick and Kathy Fernsby, find themselves in a horribly primitive environment with a savage native maid, a lascivious manservant, a conceited billionaire playboy, and an oblivious resort owner with a very different definition of paradise. The Fernsby's came to the resort with a marriage already on the rocks hoping to rekindle and relax. But now they find themselves LITERALLY on the rocks, jagged and volcanic, and hoping to escape the week alive. Or at least, still married.

Fans of "Noises Off", "The Play that Goes Wrong", and The Big Sandwich's previously produced and published play "Change the Station" will love this comedy romp. This is one not to miss!

by the Community Hiking Club

Also on September 19, The MAIN will host an artist reception for its Second Annual Photo Competition by the Community Hiking Club. In the last few years, California has been hit with several destructive wildfires, including the Sand, Station, Woolsey, Thomas and Camp Fires. Most people know fire by the destruction left in its wake. But fire can have a different side as well. In the photo exhibition, you will see the starkness of the devastation, the beauty of the recovery and a few of the magnificent fire followers. Guests attending the free reception will enjoy light refreshments and have an opportunity to meet the photographers from 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m.

Monday, September 16 (6:00PM) FREE Yupo Watercolor Demo at Barnes and Noble

Kevin Davidson will demonstrate watercolor on Yupo. This event is free, open to the public and meets at 6:30 pm at Barnes & Noble, 23630 Valencia Blvd.

"I was introduced to painting on Yupo paper in a class run by Barbara Stutheit in Laguna. Someone brought in a few sheets of Yupo plastic paper that you could paint watercolor on and actually make changes because of the slick surface. My style fit right in with the characteristics of the surface, and 3000+ paintings later, I'm still using it," said Davidson. See: www.watercolorYupo.tumblr.com

After graduating from Art Center College of Design as an illustration

major, Davidson became a freelance illustrator, working in a small design studio with fellow Art Center students for a couple of years until it closed. He then worked as a freelance illustrator for the next 20-25 years, and finally transitioned into fine art... specifically watercolor.

"Back in the 70's, I was a struggling illustrator trying to support a wife, four kids, a few cats, and maintaining a fixer-upper Victorian farmhouse in Old Towne Orange. Now with awards too numerous to account here, I do demos and Yupo workshops so other people can learn the vagaries of the material without going completely insane. Some artists actually stick with it...In the meantime, I have been spending about 50% of my time in oils, plein air and studio and winning awards there too," said Davidson.

Come early, standing room only by 6:30 pm. For more info on the SCAA, see: www.SantaClaritaArtists.org.

Urban Sketching and Plein Air Painting Old Town Newhall

This month we will meet in Downtown Newhall on Main Street around the corner from the SCAA Gallery. We will meet from 9-12 on Friday September 27, 2019.

Please bring the materials you enjoy using. Urban sketching is simply walking with your sketchbook, pausing to work on what catches your eye for a few minutes and then walking a few paces stopping and sketching again. I plan on walking down Main Street toward the library. From these sketches I will decide where to paint or continue drawing.

I hope you can join me at Old Town Newhall.

Baskerville: A Sherlock Holmes Mystery

Get your deerstalker cap on — the play's afoot! Comedic genius Ken Ludwig (Lend Me a Tenor, Moon Over Buffalo) transforms Arthur

Conan Doyle's classic The Hound of the Baskervilles into a murderously funny adventure. Sherlock Holmes is on the case. The male heirs of the Baskerville line are being dispatched one by one. To find their ingenious killer, Holmes and Watson must brave the desolate moors before a family curse dooms its newest heir. Watch as our intrepid investigators try to escape a dizzying web of clues, silly accents, disguises, and deceit as five actors deftly portray more than forty characters. Does a wild hellhound prowl the moors of Devonshire? Can our heroes discover the truth in time? Join the fun and see how far from elementary the truth can be.

Peter and the Starcatcher

A young orphan and his mates are shipped off from Victorian England to a distant island ruled by the evil King Zarboff. They know nothing of the mysterious trunk in the captain's cabin, which contains a precious, otherworldly cargo. At sea, the boys are discovered by a precocious young girl named Molly, a Starcatcher-in-training who realizes that the trunk's precious cargo is starstuff, a celestial substance so powerful that it must never fall into the wrong hands. When the ship is taken over by pirates – led by the fearsome Black Stache, a villain determined to claim the trunk and its treasure for his own – the journey quickly becomes a thrilling adventure.

From pirates on the high seas to dangers in the jungle, this swashbuckling adventure featuring live musicians tells the tale of Peter Pan's magical beginnings.
