MATTY - An Evening with Christy Mathewson

We all know the name Babe Ruth, even if we're not baseball fans. But before the Babe dominated the sport, there was a true Giant who was just as popular in his day. Christy Mathewson was a Hall of Fame pitcher for the New York Giants from 1900 to 1916. But even more than that, he was a gentleman and homespun philosopher who helped to elevate the then-rowdy sport of baseball into America's game. Actor Eddie Frierson spent 12 years researching and writing his play, and now he brings the baseball great to life in this memorable two-hour solo performance. Cost: Suggested donation $15

Santa Clarita Artist Demo: Glen Knowles

A third generation southern Californian whose family settled in Long Beach in 1909. During the 1920's his grandfather owned and operated the Silverado mine on Saddleback Mountain in Orange County. In the 1960's his father was instrumental in introducing Kiwi fruit to America. Knowles graduated from Art Center College of Design in 1975 with a degree in illustration and an emphasis on painting. That same year he began receiving critiques from artist Robert Clunie, a fifty-year veteran of outdoor painting who resided in Bishop, California. Knowles received additional instruction from John Asaro, Rex Brandt, Glenn Vilppu, and Robert E. Wood.

Throughout his career he has been inspired by the early California Impressionist oil painters and California-style watercolorists, ultimately organizing six exhibitions on the history of Southern California Art and artists. Knowles loves the adventure of combining painting and travel painting across five European countries and in the John Muir wilderness of the eastern Sierra Nevada Mountains.

Knowles has also taught a variety of art classes for the last twenty years, emphasizing drawing and painting, portraiture, color theory and design, composition, and a unique class on digital life drawing. For five years he has taught classes on drawing animals from life at the Los Angeles Zoo. Knowles is the inventor of the ColorWheel palette, a color theory mixing system distributed by Speedball Art Products in America and in seventy-five countries worldwide. North Light Books Splash 3, called Knowles one of Americas top 105 contemporary watercolor painters.

He has an extensive regional, national and international exhibition record, has exhibited in the last three California Art Club Gold medal exhibitions and received a First-Place award in the 1999 California Art Club, Millard Sheets painting competition at the Los Angeles County Fair. Glen Knowles is a member of the National Academy of Professional Plein Air Painters and an Artist Member of the California Art Club. First Place Award: Millard Sheets Gallery / California Art Club Paint Out, Los Angeles County Fair, September 9 -September 26, 1999. Three Visions, George Stern Fine Arts, April 17 -June 1,1999. Award, Eagle Rock Renaissance of Plein Air Painting, May 5 -May 26, 2002. Top 100 Artists for the Parks, 2002.

Steel Magnolias

*Honey. It's the 1980s. In Louisiana. At Truvy's beauty shop — motto: "There is no such thing as natural beauty" — the women are all sass and brass. Through clouds of hairspray and over the buzz of blow dryers, six southern spitfires gather each week to gossip and support each other through thick and thin. But those bonds are about to be tested when M'Lynn and her daughter Shelby face a life-changing event. Infused with heart and humor, Steel Magnolias is a hilarious story of love, loss, and enduring friendship. Check with Box Office for schedule of Matinee and evening.

Welcome to Plein Air Painting.

This is a to meet and paint around Santa Clarita! We will still be meeting from 9-12. I will arrive at the location about 8:30. From 8:30 to 9, I will share the new concepts and ideas that I have learned since taking on this position at the Santa Clarita Artist Association.

This is a meet-up group, therefore there is no fee. If you are new to Plein Air painting, come early I would love to help you set up to paint. A view finder is very helpful to choosing your subject. I look forward to painting with you.
