May 24 – June 22 (See Below) $19/$17/$15 MOONLIGHT and MAGNOLIAS

Legendary film producer David O. Selznick is five weeks into shooting Gone With the Wind when he realizes the script is awful, and that the director doesn't have a clue. He has five days to replace them, and restart the shoot, or the production will shut down. Selznick calls Victor Fleming from the set of The Wizard to Oz to direct, and he taps legendary playwright, screenwriter and script doctor Ben Hecht to rewrite the script.

There's only one problem: Hecht hasn't read the book.

IMAG_NE - Sculpture Dedication Ceremony

The Santa Clarita City Council invites the public to attend an unveiling ceremony for the newest public art sculpture in Santa Clarita called "Imag_ne" by Australian artist Emma Anna. The new public art piece will be installed in front of the Valencia Library located at 23743 West Valencia Boulevard.

The "Imag_ne" sculpture resembles large oversized Scrabble tiles assembled side by side to spell out the word "Imagine" – except the "I" of the word is missing. The blank space invites people to stand in place of the missing

"I" to help complete the word. The sculpture also encourages passersby to allow a space in their day for imagination – an objective that the Valencia Library aspires to achieve every day with their free and educational community resources and programs. "The capacity to imagine is an inherently human characteristic, shared by all. Its power inspires us to imagine new possibilities, and different ways of looking at the world and each other," states artist Emma Anna.

The concept for "Imag_ne" was originally conceived as a major project to support Emma's work towards a Master's in Public Art, at RMIT University in Melbourne. What began as a university project, became an internationally acclaimed public sculpture that would travel around the world to places such as Florida and Denmark.

This sculpture is just one of many public art pieces installed throughout the City of Santa Clarita.

To learn more, please visit SantaClaritaArts.com. To attend, please RSVP to Kathleen Herrera at kherrera@santaclarita.com or at (661) 255-4939.

Artist Reception - Castles, Cottages and Countryside

Laurie Morgan invites you to view her solo art show, Castles, Cottages and Countryside, at Fast Frame during the month of June, 2019.

The exhibit includes a selection of watercolor and pastel paintings from her travels, showcasing landscapes, florals and architecture.

"I get a thrill rendering on canvas the sights I see in my travels around the world," said Morgan. "I'm intrigued by historic architecture and most of my work contains part of a house, castle, cottage, cabin, barn or other structure. I love the history behind the buildings and ruins, and try to convey their stories. Many of my paintings have windows or doors, arches and pathways. These mean to me adventure, surprise and levels of spirituality. I'm also fascinated by man's use of natural substances such as, stone, brick, wood and often add these to my work as well. Equally I love flowers and gardens and try to include them wherever I can. I often use my own garden for inspiration for many of my floral paintings."

A local artist since 1988, Morgan is a member and past-president of Santa Clarita Artists Association and teaches art classes through ARTree. An award-winning artist, Morgan's art has been exhibited at the SCAA Gallery of Santa Clarita, La Galeria Gitana in San Fernando, Santa Paula Arts Association Gallery, The Lonny Chapman Theatre in Noho, JET Studios in Noho, the Canyon Theatre Guild, The Main in Old Town Newhall, Fast Frame Valencia, The Valley Fair, and other art fairs and shows throughout L.A. County. Her original paintings and prints reside in homes and businesses all over the world. Her complete collection may be viewed at www.lauriemorgan.biz.

The Society Comedy Troupe –

Let Me Tell You 'Bout My Best Friend

Improvised music, comedy, scenes, the works. If you've seen "Whose Line Is It Anyway" you have an idea of what kind of hilarious, energetic comedy that teAM improv can be. If you come to our show, you will laugh. If you don't, there's no one who can help you. The Society are 12 time iO West Cage Match Champions!

What to Expect: At The Society Comedy Troupe, a cast of professional actors and comedians will take you on a comedy adventure that is never the same twice. Most shows begin with a short warm-up from one of our players to explain the show and get the audience ready to enjoy. Then our Players take the stage, and the spontaneity begins. Because we get suggestions for scenes and seek input from the audience, you can, if you choose, directly affect the show. Usually we do shorter improv games or scenes at the beginning of the show, and then start a long-form play or musical for the second half. However, because we're making everything up, that can change too!

At every show, you can expect: A Cast of Great Actors and Comedians – Spontaneity - A Show that is Never the Same Twice

The Collage Lab gets together monthly to experiment with the medium of collage, often throwing in mixed media and assemblage

Collage describes both the technique and the resulting work of art in which pieces of paper, photographs, fabric and other materials are arranged and stuck down onto a supporting surface. Collage can also include other media such as painting and drawing, and contain three-dimensional elements.

Often times the Collage Lab artists are challenged to create a work from similar materials to see what each artist does with it. The artists included in this collected works by the Collage Lab are Karen Barnard, Janet Black, Mary Scott, Karen L. Brown, Joyce Lombard, Darlene Roker, Janna Valenzuela, Karen Hoffberg, and Wendy Winet.

Julie Crouch watercolor demo will be held at meeting of the Santa Clarita Artists Association (SCAA). This event is free, open to the public. "When I retired from practicing law in 2002, I started taking watercolor classes and haven't put my brushes down since," said Crouch. "I AM in LOVE with watercolor! I AM enamored with color, especially when the colors mix on the paper in unexpected ways. I rein myself in by paying attention to value, letting the colors flow.” Crouch teaches watercolor weekly at the City of San Gabriel Community Services Department and at Creative Arts Group in Sierra Madre, CA. She is on Mid-Valley Arts League and has also served on the Board of National Watercolor Society. She is a Signature Member of Watercolor West and in Western Colorado Watercolor Society. Her work has been juried into several national exhibitions and she received the Valley Watercolor Society Top Honors Award in their 2012 and 2015 juried exhibitions. See www.juliecrouchart.com.

A graduate of UCLA and Loyola Law School, she has studied with most of the well-known watercolorists: Gerald Brommer, Frank Eber, Tom Fong, Frank Francese, Fealing Lin, Barbara Nechis, Carl Purcell, Brenda Swenson, Mel Stabin, Joseph Stoddard, Christine Sullivan, Chris Van Winkle and others.

Jim Gustin & Truth Jones

Jim Gustin is a blues singer and guitarist from Santa Clarita California. He has a distinctive, powerful voice; soulful and deep with a smoky rasp, he is a passionate and energetic performer. He is also a very solid guitarist with great tone and a funky feel. Jim has been playing music for nearly 40 years up and down the west coast. His first gig on guitar was at the age of 18 at the Los Angeles Sports arena in front of 10,000 people.

Jeri Goldenhar, aka Truth Jones, has been singing since she was a little girl, although at over six feet tall, it's hard to imagine her as a knee high, little red-headed child. She has a big voice to match her impressive stature. She can belt out gospel and soul seldom heard from suburban white girls.

Together, they provide a powerful one-two vocal punch that is rare amongst blues acts. They sound great blended together as well as each bringing a distinctive flavor to create the band's unique sound. They have well written catchy songs that come from the heart and performed with passion.

They have opened for, or performed with many notable performers including; Three Dog Night, Foghat, Tommy Castro, Fabulous Thunderbirds, Chris Duarte, Teresa James, Coco Montoya, John Nemeth, Big Bad Voodoo Daddy, Delgado Bros, Deb Ryder, Dallas Hodge, Phantom Blues Band, Chris Cain, The 44s, Shari Puerto, Chase Walker, Darrell Mansfield, Ray Goren and many more.
